

Santa has sent me to check up on you,

but there are a few things I need you to do!
I need a name, can you pick one out?

Will it be Buddy, Speedy, or Sprout?
Be good and listen to Mom and Dad.

If you do, there will be fun to be had!
Every night I'll report to Santa at the North Pole.

So you must be good, you don't want coal!
It might be difficult, but please let me be.

Just like the book says, my magic might leave!
This a good plan, don't you agree?

I'll see you tomorrow, just wait and see!
